CLASS PROPHECY

On one dark cloudy day in the year of 1990, I was driving down a highway. I was sleepy and I must have driven farther than I thought, because it soon started to rain so hard I had to stop. Fortunately there was a huge old house nearby so I thought I would go in for awhile until it stopped. It grew darker, lightning flashed, thunder roared; I saw a dim light and knew someone was home.

I went to the door and knocked; it opened very slowly. Then a loud noise sounded from within. It scared me and I was nervous and shaking, so I started back down the stairs very quietly. Then I heard a very weak voice say, "Come in." As I looked up I saw that it was a tall, stooped, darkly clad person who was very old, wrinkled and toothless. Then the lightning flashed again and I recognized her as Anita Stewart, an old classmate. She gave me a very nice hello and asked me to sit down. The room was very dim but when the lightning flashed I saw an old man with a long beard reading a book of knowledge. I recognized him as Gary Tate, also an old friend. I didn't want to disturb him so I thought I would hang my own coat in the closet. As I opened the door a skeleton fell out. I got-scared and jumped back. Finally I leaned closer and thought it was someone I once knew. Then I recognized Larry Carr. I shoved him back in and went to my chair.

Suddenly I heard a loud crash as some window glass was broken. Looking over that way I saw the elderly Gary Shorter sitting amidst the broken glass. I asked him how he fell through the window and he said he came down the drain-pipe because it was quicker that way.

Then the dinner bell rang and an old, gray headed, fat, wobbly maid entered the room. It was Lee Avonne Berry. She said hello and asked me to eat some of her cooking. In the kitchen sat Myrna Hart, wrinkled and smoking an old pipe. Bob Rout was sitting at the table and said I couldn't talk to her because she couldn't hear or talk.

After dinner I decided to explore the house. As I wandered through an old dusty parlor I saw Patsy Roark and Phyllis Hatton singing a lonely church hymn. I didn't want to intrude so I hurried down the hall and there was Elsie Hedge dusting the furniture and Barbara Goodwin sweeping the floor. They said hello and I ventured on to a slightly opened door. As I peeped in I saw Norman Snyder in his old basketball suit practicing some field shots. His suit was too small and he was pretty stiff, but he still hadn't lost his technique. And there of course was Charles Ruble still carrying his towels as usual.

In another room I found Linda Welton telling Don Williams his fortune. It seemed he had lost his job at the Golden Goose Resort and I couldn't understand why. She offered to tell my fortune and as I looked into the globe I began to see highway 50 and as I looked closer I saw old F.H.S. As the picture moved to the lower hall I saw Miss Marie selling tickets to a ball game. Then I saw that we were playing our old foes, Bruceville. Mr. Mauck was sweating and nervously wringing a towel. Mrs. Lee was giving a small child a bawling out for running through the hall. Mr. Carr was trying to hold a little girl and take tickets at the same time. Then the picture moved to the Home Ec Department and I saw Miss McCoy bending over her littered desk grading some 15 day old papers. As the picture blurred, I dimly began to see Miss Wilson directing the boys glee club. I saw Mr. Archer sitting there to keep them from chewing bubble gum. Miss Petts was in the library catching up on the latest Literature. While Mrs. Dollinger was keeping study hall. She was explaining some Algebra problems to the freshmen. The picture then changed to downstairs when I saw Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Marchino and Mrs. Beuscher standing in the hall talking over the days happenings. The picture then blurred and the globe went blank. I thanked Miss Welton and left.

After a short time I went over in one corner of the room where Charles Bates was practicing boxing. He has just been voted the fighter least likely to become heavyweight champion.

I went to another corner and found a panel door. I pushed a button and the door opened. I came upon a stairway which led to the basement. There I saw Marvin Cook in old overalls firing the furnace. He gave me a friendly smile and asked if I had seen Jo Ellen McCord. He said she was home on vacation from Hollywood where she played the part of Mrs. Frankinstien in the movies. I went back upstairs and saw it had stopped raining. I told everyone good-by and started my long journey home.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of '54, in 18 distinct and individual parts, realizing our days in the sphere of education are drawing near, with full possession of crammed minds, well-trained memory and agressiveness, hereby make void all former wills by this, our last will and testimony.

To the underclassmen, we leave our wisdom, initiative, superiority and carefree attitude that we as Seniors now possess.

To our sponsors, Mrs. Dollinger and Mr. Archer we extend our deepest appreciation for their patience with us during this year. We wish you as much happiness in your future life as you have given us this year.

To Mrs. Lee, we give all of our old bookkeeping papers as proof of our great intelligence.

To Mr. Carr, we leave a joke book because we have heard all of his old stories.

To Miss Wilson, we leave our ability to sing to her music classes.

To Miss McCoy, we leave all of the rats and bugs we can find for her Biology contest next year.

To Mr. Mauck, we leave the spirit we had to win all the ball games. May you make use of it.

To Miss Petts, we leave our ability to spell every word correct.

I, Charles Bates, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Lee to Robert Stewart.

I, Lee Avonne Berry, will my ability to go steady and not to go steady at the same time to Rose Ann Tromley.

I, Larry Carr, will my ability to sit on the bench to Sylvan Ice.

I, Marvin Cook, will my ability to get bookkeeping in late and not get a grade on my card to John Wampler.

I, Barbara Goodwin, will my ability to flirt to Rosalie Foss.
 I, Myrna Hart, will my ability to hold my temper to Dorothy Bosworth.
 I, Phyllis Hatton, will my pretty legs to Frances Otten.
 I, Elsie Hedge, will my ability to "know it all" to Jean Alice Allegree.
 I, Jo Ellen McCord, will my driving to Nancy McClure.
 I, Patsy Roark, will my ability to make a certain someone know who's boss to Irma Anson.
 I, Robert Rout, will my ability to be Captain of the basketball team to Lee Martindale.
 I, Charles Ruble, will my laugh to Bennie Utt. May he make as much use of it as I have.
 I, Gary Shorter, will my music ability to Wayne Goodwin.
 I, Norman Snyder, will my cute ways to Sammy McClure.
 I, Anita Stewart, will my ability to go with an underclassman to Kay Young.
 I, Gary Tate, will my ability to get out of class to Marvlyn Brawdy.
 I, Donald Williams, will my ability to change my ways to Connie Clark.
 I, Linda Welton, will my ability to get dates to Mary Ruth Hatton.

The whole senior class leave its' ability to split up before and after the play to the juniors. May they not have as many troubles as we have had.

SENIOR POEMS

The time has now come
'Tis sad but 'tis true
For us Seniors at Fritchton
To say farewell to you .

The first of us seniors to tell you good-bye
Is a fellow who's quite handsome and tall
His name's Charles Bates and he will be missed
Next year when Fritchton plays ball .

Another who's leaving old Fritchton High
Is a girl who's so jolly and merry
She'll always have friends wherever she goes
Her name is Lee Avonne Berry.

Larry Carr is a very fine guy
As I'm sure you'll all agree
In future years he'll be quite famous
Don't take our word, just wait and see.

Marvin Cook is a quiet boy
He seems so very shy
But once you get to know him
You'll admit he's quite a guy.

Barbara Goodwin is a little girl
Who's cute and so full of life.
She has lots of fun and one of these days
She'll make someone a very nice wife.

Another girl who's so nice to know
Happens to be Myrna Hart
She's planning to be a nurse someday
When there's work to be done, she'll do her part.

One of the girls we all like so much
Is Phyllis Hatton, who'll be missed when she's gone
She'll make her boss a fine secretary
And maybe marry him later on.

Another senior who's a very nice girl
Is sure to achieve lots of fame
She knows what she wants and will work very hard
Elsie Hedge is this girl's name.

Jo Ellen McCord is a very sweet girl
She's smart and so nice to know
She may be a teacher or become a beautician
Whichever she chooses, to the top she will go.

Patsy Roark is another from our class
Who, in this world, is sure to go far
She sings very lovely and we all agree
That someday soon she'll become a big star.

SENIOR POEMS

Bob Rout is the tallest boy in our class
He was captain of the basketball team
He may join the Big Ten and we'll all be so proud
As we watch him on TV, letting off steam.

A boy who has done a lot of hard work
To help the Eagles toward fame
Is a fellow that everyone likes very much
Charles Ruble, of course, is his name.

Gary Shorter has quite a few talents
He's musically inclined and can draw
He's one of the nicest guys you could meet
He'll always abide by the law.

The Eagles have always had a good team
But they were particularly good this season
And Norman Snyder, co-captain of the team
Of course, was partly the reason.

Anita Stewart is another one of the bunch
She's always been near the top of her class
She plans to proceed with a college career
And we all wish him much happiness.

Another who's planning to become a nurse
Is a girl who has lots of beauty
If you become ill, you need not be worried
If Linda Welton is the nurse on duty.

And last but not least is a very fine fellow
Who led many cheers with great speed
Don Williams is the lad who has all the charm
Quite a well person indeed.

That's all of us seniors and may we say this
To you each and everyone
That when you become seniors may you enjoy
The same amount of wonderful fun.

And we want to thank you teachers
For having done more than your part
In helping us to find the way
To a bright and happy start.

So now farewell to all of you
We have to move along
We're going into the world to do our share
In helping to right the wrong.

CLASS HISTORY

On a bright morning of August, 1942, in the small town of Fritchton, Indiana there came a sound of school bells and childrens voices. Among the children on the playground, there were twenty-six little first graders eager to learn their 1, 2, 3's and a, b, c, 's. This class consisted of Barbara Baldwin, Shirley Ann Carie, Marvin Cook, Donna Dossett, Cecil Durham, Alice Gilbert, Barbara Goodwin, Mary Ruth Hatton, Marjorie Hatton, Elsie Hedge, Loretta Kelly, Fern Maxwell, James Parker, Harold Lee Phillippe, Frieda Mae Roach, Catherine Ramsey, Larry Riggles, Charles Ruble, Jackie Schultz, Gary Tate, Barbara Theriac, John Wampler, Linda Welton, Wayne Welton, Virginia James, and Bobby McKibben. Miss Marie Powell, our patient and understanding teacher is still teaching here and is still as wonderful as ever.

We finally struggled through our first grade, not knowing whether we liked school or not, but gradually getting used to the idea of a little work and also getting to know each other better.

We then went to the second grade and there we were separated. Some of us were in Miss Marie's room and the rest in Mrs. Mildred Fossmeier's room. During the year we had three newcomers. They were Anita Stewart, Robert Rout, and Donald Williams. We had, what we thought at that time, a large class, twenty-nine.

We moved on to the third grade where we were all together again, with the exception of Barbara Baldwin, Donna Dossett, Jackie Schultz, James Parker, Harold Lee Phillippe, Frieda Mae Roach, Larry Riggles, Barbara Theriac, Wayne Welton, Virginia James, and Bobby McKibben. We gained three more newcomers which were Charlene Cardiau, Louise Vieke, and Joan Hanks.

In the fourth grade we all moved to Mrs. Mary Van Meter's room. Our newcomers, Veronica Barrett, Jo Ellen McCord, Nancy Sebring, Jimmy Shouss, Norman Snyder, Norman Lamkin, Phyllis Hatton, and Patty Venable, doubled our losses, who were, Cecil Durham, Alice Gilbert, Marjorie Hatton, and Loretta Kelly.

In the fifth grade we had to be separated again, some of us stayed in Mrs. Van Meter's room and the rest went to Mrs. Helen Bobe's room. This year only three had left us, they were Jimmy Shouss, Joan Hanks and Norman Lamkin, with one newcomer, Patsy Roark.

Then came the year when we moved to the sixth grade. We were all together again and our teacher was Mrs. Helen Bobe. We had five to leave, Charlene Cordiau, Fern Maxwell, Jo Ellen McCord, Patty Veneable, and Nancy Sebring, so that just left seventeen in our class.

Next was the year we moved to Junior High. Mrs. Burnett was our teacher, whom we all loved. That year we had five more to join our class. They were Charles Bates, Larry Carr, Lee Avonne Berry, Gary Shorter, and Clarence Wenkle.

In the eighth grade Mrs. Burnett was still our wonderful and understanding teacher. That year we had just two to leave our class. They were Louise Vieke and Clarence Wenkle and only two entered our class and they were Donnie Hoffman and Jo Ellen McCord. This year we made quite a lot of money.

The next year was the big year when we became Freshmen. That year on Friday, September 15th, we were initiated by the Seniors in the presence of the entire school body. Some of the other big events in our lives at that time were, Saturday night, October 21, a wiener roast at Lester Williams pond. Thursday, December 14th, when the girls entertained the boys with a dinner served in the Home Ec room. Wednesday morning, February 14th, when the girls held a formal Valentine Tea, and Sunday afternoon, January 28th, when the class held a party at the Vincennes skating rink.

On September 27th we had our first class party of that year. It was a wiener roast and a hayride at Lester Williams' pond.

The next year we became Juniors and sold candy as a class activity. We also sold magazines and had a Junior-Senior Reception.

In 1954 we were seniors. On September 3rd, we elected officers. They were: President-Gary Tate, Vice-President-Bob Rout, Secretary-Anita Stewart, Treasurer-Larry Carr, News Reporter-Elsie Hedge, and our sponsors were Mrs. Dollinger and Mr. Archer. On September 18th, we had a class party. It was a pot luck supper and dancing. Together, we put together the book which we called the Fritchtonian, had a successful play called, "The Boarding House Reach", and out of our class treasury we left the school a gift to help pay on a new scoreboard.

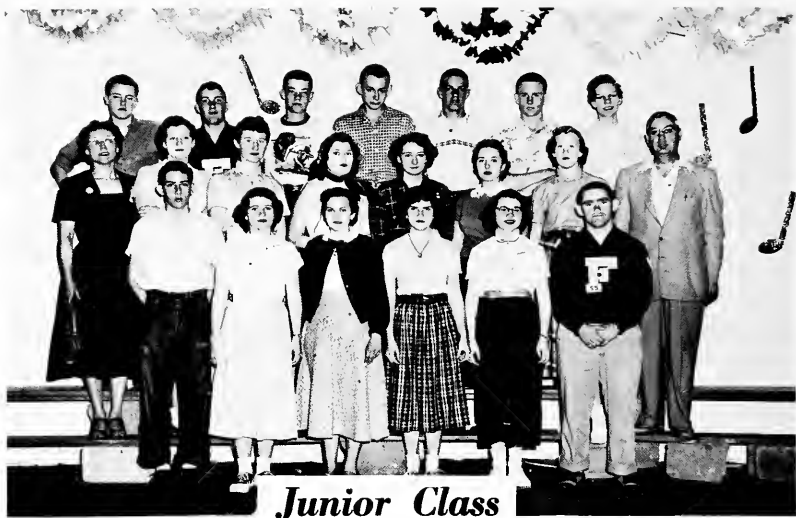

During our High School years, we had made enough money to take a trip. On May 2nd, we left for Washington D. C. Our sponsors and two other teachers went. They were Mrs. Dollinger, Mrs. Lee, Mr. Archer, and Mr. Mauck. Our class consisted of Charles Bates, Lee Avonne Berry, Larry Carr, Marvin Cook, Barbara Goodwin, Myrna Hart, Elsie Hedge, Phyllis Hatton, Jo Ellen McCord, Patsy Roark, Bob Rout, Charles Ruble, Gary Shorter, Norman Snyder, Anita Stewart, Gary Tate, Donald Williams, and Linda Welton.

Pretty Patsy Roark was crowned on February 19, 1954, by team captain, Bob Rout, as the basketball queen of the season. The ceremony was given in accordance with St. Valentine Day, with Miss Roark being the Queen of all basketball hearts. Miss Roark was dressed in a beautiful white gown and crowned with a sparkling rhinestone tiara.

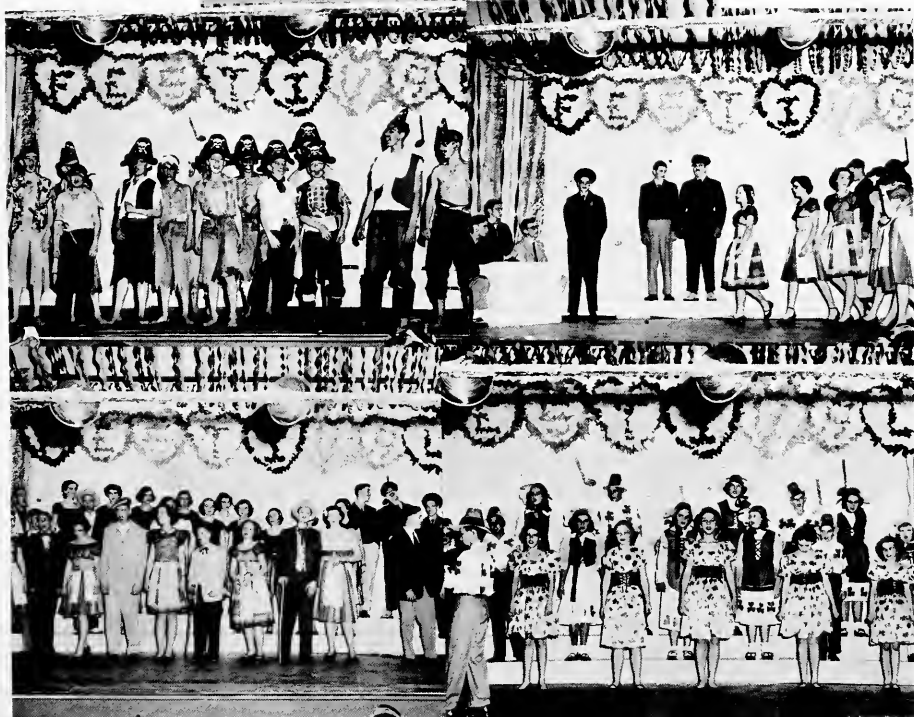

Each class was allowed to elect two attendants from their class, the seniors electing three, one of which was then elected queen by the entire high school. The queen was not known until the time of the crowning. The attendants were-Senior: Miss Jo Ellen McCord and Miss Linda Welton, both attired in lovely white gowns; Junior: Miss Donna Sue Hatton and Miss Rose Ann Tromly, both dressed in beautiful orchid gowns; Sophomore: Miss Helen McCarter and Miss Janice Webster, both attired in becoming yellow gowns; Freshman: Miss Linda Bell and Miss Sue Ellen Pilz, both dressed in pretty blue gowns. The flower girl was Donna Thompson and crown bearer was Bobby Reel.

The stage was gayly decorated with a large white heart trimmed in red backing the queen's throne and small hearts backing the attendants. At the front of the stage was a small paper fence, with these words written on it, "QUEEN OF EAGLES."
